

Open lecture-demonstration:
"Essential Elements of Violin Technique"
by Renowned Professor Eduard Schmieder

 Date: Friday, May 23, 2025

 Time: 5:00 PM

 Temple University Rome Campus
(Via di San Sebastianello, 16, 00187 Roma)

Temple University's Great Teacher Award recipient, Eduard Schmieder, a world-renowned violinist, conductor, and L.H. Carnell Professor of Violin, will give an open lecture-demonstration on "Essential Elements of Violin Technique".

This unique event will feature Professor Schmieder, along with local string students, in an engaging session that highlights the artistry of violin performance and pedagogy. Attendees will also learn about the Boyer College of Music and Dance at Temple University and opportunities to study at Temple University.

Don't miss this exceptional chance to experience world-class musicianship and connect with distinguished artists in an intimate setting!

This event is free and open to the public. Musicians, students, and classical music enthusiasts are encouraged to attend and experience an afternoon of world-class artistry and insight.

To attend, please register at the following link: <https://forms.office.com/r/75KqbDnVC5>

For more information, please contact Associate Dean, Mary Conran (mary.conran@temple.edu)

About Eduard Schmieder

Born in Ukraine, educated in St. Petersburg and Moscow, Eduard Schmieder has been characterized as an "extraordinary musician of the late 20th century" (Henry Roth). As artist and teacher, Schmieder amalgamates and creatively transforms the great traditions of European and American art. Prof. Schmieder has been performing, teaching, and conducting at prestigious international music halls and festivals as well as teaching master classes in virtually every foremost conservatory around the world. He maintains a concert schedule as conductor and violinist and teaches an internationally selected class of students, many of whom have gone on to win top prizes at the most prestigious international competitions, establish careers as soloists, chamber musicians, and hold leading positions in orchestras in Europe, Asia, and the United States.

www.EduardSchmieder.com