Communication skills

- Good capacity to speak in public, to groups or via electronic media (long distance learning)
- Emphatic listener and persuasive speaker
- Good capacity to write creative or factual

I have developed good communication skills since university days, when I was among the founders and promoters of the first faculty festival.

Between November 2008 and January 2009, I worked as an assistant press office for the opening of the new multiplex of the UGC at "Porta di Roma" shopping center. On this occasion I was able to improve my communication and management skills thanks to the management of major events and press relations.

These skills have been strengthened and enriched by a long experience as bloggers, that have also led to the collaboration with an advertising agency in Rome, for which I followed the blogs dedicated to the launch of several movies, the last of which was "Persepolis".

The decision to pursue a career in the world of training and facilitation has finally allowed me to maximize my communication skills.

Organizational management skills and

- Mediation skills (developed thanks to the management of projects and international teams)
- Adaptability (developed thanks to a long experience of volunteering abroad and thanks to the management and coordination of long-term international projects)
- Flexibility (developed thanks to the experience gained working as trainer)

Professional skills

- Excellent knowledge of the non-formal education methodology
- Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills
- Excellent knowledge of Microsoft Office package
- Excellent knowledge of nonverbal communication
- Good knowledge of graphics tools (Photoshop - illustrator – InDesign)
- Good knowledge of online platforms for shared learning and collaboration
- Good stress management capacity
