

PRE-COLLEGE STUDY ABROAD: ROME

10-day

program

Travel with a small group of high school students and discover why Rome is known as the Eternal City.

June 16-27

PRE-COLLEGE STUDY ABROAD: ROME OVERVIEW

ABOUT PRE-COLLEGE STUDY ABROAD: ROME

Pre-College Study Abroad: Rome is an exciting new program that invites students entering grades 10, 11, or 12 to travel to Rome, Italy to experience what life would be like as an undergraduate student at Temple University Rome.

EXPLORE ITALY'S PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

Through this unique 10-day program, you will learn from Temple Rome faculty as a member of a small group of American and international students, using Rome itself as your classroom. You'll explore Italy's past, present, and future through interdisciplinary, hands-on lessons and activities and discover why Rome is known as the Eternal City.

This program allows you to survey multiple topics, with workshops that change each day. Topics may include Italian history, Italian art and architecture, Italian language, Roman mythology, the Mafia in modern Italy, photography, environmental sustainability, food culture, and international education. Workshops (with the exception of Italian language) are taught in English by multi-lingual Temple Rome professors.

TRAVEL LOGISTICS

This program is a group travel program. Students living in the United States will be expected to join the group in Philadelphia prior to departure, and further information about how to purchase your flight will be provided to you once you are accepted to the program. Students living outside the U.S. will be expected to make their own travel arrangements to get to and from Rome.

Students will live in Rome for the duration of the program, however will have ample opportunities for day trips to places like Pompeii, Tivoli Gardens, and Ostia Antica. The final schedule will be presented to the students in a pre-departure orientation.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINE

You must generally have a 3.0 GPA or better to be considered for this program. You must also be under 18 years old at the time of travel in June 2024. To get started, complete the free online application. You will also be asked to participate in an online interview.

The program cost is $5000 comprehensive of all activities, meals, & lodging. Partial scholarships are available and based on grades, background, and your interview. To be considered for a scholarship, indicate that you want to be considered by responding "yes" to the scholarship question on the application. Local (Roman-based students) can participate at a reduced price if they spend the duration of the workshop living at home and participating in day activities only.

Applications are accepted online through March 15, 2024.

For additional information consult the Temple Pre-College website or contact precollege@temple.edu

