

Internships

Benefits of an internship: career readiness, immersive, real-world experience, skills growth, alignment with chosen field of study, networking, global competence.

Range of industries: Art galleries, museums, cultural centers, legal studios, international organizations, business, architectural firms, interior design and landscape design firms, art historians, Italian and international artists.

Internship hours: Fall/Spring semester, interns work between 8-10 hours a week; Summer semester, interns work between 15-18 hours a week for 6 weeks.

Number of credit hours: 3 credits hours per semester

Scan QR code
for more info

<https://rome.temple.edu/internships>

Franco

Franco is a Senior majoring in Marketing at the Fox School of Business, Temple University.

Internship: an international sports camp for young athletes.

"Everyday is different, and you have to be ready to pivot your plans if something changes."

Keiran

"I loved the entire experience so much! I'm grateful Temple gave me the space to work on art while being able to hone my skills and techniques."

SHREYA

"Be grateful and give back, regardless of your circumstances. One person can make a significant impact."

☐ Junior

☐ Studying Finance at the Fox School of Business, Temple University

☐ Internship: a Refugee Organization

Malia

- Malia is a Senior majoring in Communication and Social influence at the Klein College of Media and Communication, Temple University.

- Internship: Refugee and women-led organization whose mission is to support Afghan women refugees residing in Italy.

"I gained insight into the importance of effective communication, especially in a remote, international context as well as valuable cross-cultural collaboration and communication skills."

Keiran is a Sculpture major at the Tyler School of Art, Temple University.

Internship: Studio Assistant for a renowned Roman artist.