TEMPLE ROME ENTRY YEAR SCHOLARSHIPS & FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR U.S. CITIZENS

MERIT BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

All incoming freshman applicants are automatically considered for a merit scholarship based on their academic motivation- no extra application required!

How much: Range from $2,000 to full tuition, disbursed starting the second year of study

Deadline: Must apply to Temple by Feb 1 and submit tuition deposit by May 1

INDIVIDUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Temple University offers students numerous scholarship opportunities to assist you in financing your education. In addition, each school and college offers scholarships specifically for students enrolled in their programs.

How much: Varies based on scholarship

Deadline: Varies based on scholarship

FEDERAL STUDENT AID

At Temple, 79 percent of first-year students receive need-based financial aid. Submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to apply for federal financial aid.

How much: Varies based on financial need

Deadline: Priority deadline March 1. After March 1, financial aid awards will continue to be made, but all funding sources may not be available.

WORK STUDY JOBS

Temple provides opportunities for students to earn money in a bi-weekly paycheck to help cover non-billable educational expenses. There are jobs available working within your college or campus, university office, or at an off-campus, nonprofit organization.

How much: Varies based on FAFSA report/individual financial need

Deadline: N/A

BENEFITS FOR MILITARY FAMILIES

Eligible military families may receive GI Bill and/or Yellow Ribbon benefits to help fund their college education.

How much: Varies based on eligibility

Deadline: May vary depending on military status

PAYMENT PLANS

Students, if unable to pay their entire tuition bill at one time, are able to space out their payments or participate in a deferred payment plan to make paying for college less stressful.

For more info visit rome.temple.edu

*All award amounts are subject to change based on availability of funding for the academic year. Be sure to consult with the specific eligibility requirements and deadlines for each scholarship that you are applying for.