MERIT BASED SCHOLARSHIPS

All incoming freshman applicants are automatically considered for a merit scholarship based on their academic motivation—no extra application required!

How much: Ranges from $1,000 to full tuition, disbursed starting the second year of study

Deadline: Apply to Temple by February 1

WORK STUDY JOBS

Temple provides opportunities for students to earn money in a bi-weekly paycheck to help cover non-billable educational expenses. There are a variety of jobs available working on campus.

How much: Varies based on FAFSA report/individual financial need

Deadline: N/A

BRIDGE SCHOLARSHIP

Available only to Rome Entry Year applicants, students can apply for this scholarship to be used toward the cost of university-facilitated housing during their first year.

How much: Varies based on financial need

Deadline: April 1

NEED-BASED GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

At Temple, about 70 percent of first-year students receive need-based financial aid. Submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to apply for federal financial aid.

How much: Varies based on financial need

Deadline: March 1

PAYMENT PLANS

Students, if unable to pay their entire tuition bill at one time, are able to space out their payments or participate in a deferred payment plan to make paying for college less stressful.

For more info visit admissions.temple.edu

*All award amounts are subject to change based on availability of funding for the academic year. Be sure to consult with the specific eligibility requirements and deadlines for each scholarship that you are applying for.